VILLA RIANNA

Enjoying panoramic views but yet very close to the downtown life, this extraordinary villa offers convenient spaces and stylish decoration for all those who are capable to understand that kind of beauty.

VILLA RIANNA
KEA (TZIA), GREECE

Villa Rianna is one of the biggest houses in Kea island, published in several magazines and awarded for its architecture and internal decoration. Built in different levels and with the stone as the main material used around, you will definitely feel the aura and atmosphere of this magical island while being in this magical house.

LAYOUT

On the Upper floor you will happily face the aristocratic entrance halls, a spacious living area with fireplace, the masterpiece furniture, the artworks and the main dining area. One separated & one open plan fully equipped kitchen in whitewashed walls reminding the Cycladic architecture. And finally the three double bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms & showers that enjoy breath taking views.

On the Lower floor there are three spacious double bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms & showers as well, one living room (possible to accommodate 2 more persons) and one service bedroom.

Outdoors. Here you will find the infinity swimming pool with its surroundings, the dining (up to 20 persons) and multiple sitting areas (up to 30 persons) in different levels, the BBQ and the totally green garden. A staff bedroom exists as well, used by the villa housekeeper.
