VILLA AQUAZURE

Perched on the cliff of Firostefani, a rarely spacious villa in Santorini combines minimalistic luxury with the cave house island architecture.

VILLA AQUAZURE SANTORINI, GREECE

Villa Aquazure built almost entirely into the rock, extends over 580 sqm with arches and curves that adhere to the rules of the traditional architecture of Santorini.

Large windows at the entrance allow the light to reach deep inside the rooms. The villa interior consists of three spacious bedrooms, three bathrooms, a comfy living room and a fully-equipped kitchen and can accommodate up to six persons.

LAYOUT

All three bedrooms are built in the style of Santorini's cave houses. Beautiful wooden furniture and large concrete beds give an elegant, minimalist feel to the premises. Fabrics in subtle shades of grey and off white color offer a sense of luxury island life. All rooms are equipped with AC and LCD TVs. Two of the bedrooms have direct access to the courtyard, while the third bedroom has access to the courtyard through the living room. Each bedroom has its own en-suite bathroom.

The living room is located at the front of the villa facade and has large windows that allow light to bathe every corner of the villa. Concrete sofas and a nice wooden settee offer great functionality and comfort. The living room is also equipped with air-conditioning and an LCD satellite TV. There are also a PS3 console, a DVD player, movies and Internet access, for a range of entertainment options within the villa. The front door of the living room leads straight to the courtyard and the pool. The living room features a full-equipped open plan kitchen for preparing breakfast and dinner.

The outside courtyard of Villa Aquazure spreads over 400 sq.m. and features an outdoor dining area, a turquoise swimming pool with Jacuzzi for plunging into its cool water. Further out, loungers offer moments of relaxation and sunbathing. At a lower level, a wonderfully made outdoor chilling out decorated with sofabeds offer breathtaking views of the caldera, the volcano and the sunset.

Villa Aquazure will fascinate the most demanding guests that want to explore the magic of the Cycladic ambiance in a unique setting.
