VILLA DAPHNE

A brand new renovated property in 2013, located in Megalochori village, this sleek property offers tranquility and authentic Greek island life-style, away from the summer crowds of this famous island. Ideal for small families and couples.

VILLA DAPHNE SANTORINI, GREECE

Villa Daphe in Megalochori in Santorini, whose original traditional setting of the 1900's has been sensitively renovated in 2013, is a property combining Santorini architecture with minimal yet understated luxurious interiors.

This sleek villa promises tranquility and is ideal for guests wanting to experience the authentic Greek island life-style away from the jostling summer crowds found in Fira and Oia. Just a short stroll from the village's picturesque square and Venetian church bell towers, it is a perfect escape for small families and couples.

A gem of privacy in Megalochori in Santorini, a true offering of sleek Cycladic luxury in neutral colors.

LAYOUT

The villa premises are decorated in earth tone colors and combine a sense of warmth and familiarity.

The two independent bedrooms each with its own private bathroom and a private walled courtyard, offer relaxing moments in a sensual evening mood lighting, while views of the vineyards and the Aegean on the horizon contribute to a unique setting.

A fully equipped kitchen with all the necessary appliances complement the living spaces that lead to the outdoor yard where you can enjoy a romantic dinner.

Don't go away without soaking in the outdoor Jacuzzi under the stars!
