VILLA AFELIA

So away from it all, but yet so close to island's action, this spacious villa offers elegant luxury overlooking the northern bays of Ftelia and ubertrendy Panormos. Built in a nature protected landscape, it is offering its guests hard to find privacy and relaxing vistas!

VILLA AFELIA
MYKONOS, GREECE

Villa Afelia is built on a private land of 8000 square meters and rests about 300m from the water's edge. True luxury and wilderness are combined at this natura labeled landscape, where no new construction is allowed any more. It combines the quite primitive aspect of the Cyclades while being minutes away from the famous Mykonos nightclubs and restaurants! And for our fashionistas guests! This property was chosen among many other international prospects by Luis Vuitton for a cruise collection catalogue.
